FARMERS ORGANIZE.

They send Out a Missionary to Organize Other Local Unions.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CONCORD, VA., Dec. 6.—As per notice, Mr. H. P. Sherman, of Indiana, one of the national organizers of the American Society of Equity, made a speech of one and a half hours at West Apomattox December 5th to the farmers. He gave a history of the growth of the National Union had made in the West in the last two years; how it had enabled the Western planters to get fair prices on wheat, etc.; also how the tobacco growers of Kentucky had by co-operation been enabled to get a price for tobacco that was profitable.

He explained the great mistake farmers made in rushing on the market a year's supply in two or three months, and demonstrated how they could and should, by co-operation, let the supply feed the demand, thus creating a regular market at equitable prices.

Mr. Matheson, of the Experimental Tobacco Station, which is located on the farm of Mr. J. C. Haddock, made an address explaining the manner of preparing land, fertilizing and curing crop of tobacco. He thinks the plot of 100 pounds of fertilizer will more than double the crop in weight. He showed how the farmers might increase the pounds per acre to double and even triple, as done in the seed leaf tobacco district of Connecticut, by giving plants proper food and keeping soil free from cultivation protecting the roots and retaining the moisture in the land. He explained how he saved the cost of worming by the use of knapsack sprayer, applying Paris Green solution.

Mr. Kain, the United States soil surveyor was next introduced. He exhibited a soil map of Bedford county, Va., and explained how the different types of soil and sub-soil were designated on the map, so that an intending purchaser of land could see at once whether the crop he wished to make staple could be raised on the land in view; also the owner of said land could be prepared to show his soil condition.

Mr. Kain will publish in the papers in Apomattox soil which they wish surveyed. It was an interesting day for the Apomattox farmers.

First—Mr. Kain to show the land suited to various crops by map.

Second—How to prepare more or less expensive on acre of land.

Third—How organization has, is and will enable a farmer to set a profitable price on his products.

SEABOARD BAPTISTS

Owing to the Slump in Cotton, All Sales Have Stopped.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTISTS

Their Reports Will Show That They Have Largely Increased Their Yearly Appropriations.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 6.—The North Carolina Supreme Court handed down an opinion in the case of Spencer vs. L. E. Seaboard Air Line Railway Company in which it is held that the consolidation of the old Raleigh and Gaston into the greater Seaboard as valid and proper and that the provision made to assess the minority stock was a valid exercise of eminent domain.

Spencer held seven shares of Raleigh and Gaston stock and sought to force the Raleigh and Gaston out of the Seaboard merger. The road involved is an important link in the Seaboard Air Line main line from Raleigh to Weldon. There was not a single bale of cotton offered on the Raleigh market yesterday, owing to the big slump that has occurred in the prices the last few days. Dealers are advising farmers here to hold their cotton. P. P. Arrandell, of this city, has started a movement by which he hopes to organize the Farmers' Twenty Per Cent. Club, the Commission of Agriculture in the several cotton States to be secretaries of the clubs, the purpose being to hold 20 per cent. of the present crop and reduce the crop next year 20 per cent.

Mr. Paul Garrett is out in a card in which he denies that he is applying for the granting of a pardon to the noted "gold brick" men from Chicago, who are serving terms in the penitentiary for attempting to unload a "gold brick" on him a few years ago in Greensboro. The Governor will very probably not take any action regarding the applications for pardon that are being pressed before him now by powerful friends of the prisoners.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTISTS.
When the North Carolina Baptist State Convention convenes in Elizabeth City to-morrow night, the report of the State boards will show that the Baptists have raised $111,000 for all purposes against $97,000 during 1903, a gain of $14,000. Some of the most notable objects and amounts are $25,000 for State missions, against $20,000 last year; $18,500 for foreign missions against $17,000 for the previous year; $5,600 for home missions against $7,500 last year; $27,000 for the Thomasville Orphanage, an increase of $2,000. There are 126 missionaries in the State and there are reported 2,900 conversions under their ministry. Baptists during the year received about ten thousand accessions to the churches, a net gain of 5,000 in membership. Rev. J. W. Lynch, of Wake Forest, will preach the convention sermon Wednesday night. Rev. R. H. Marsh, D. D., of Oxford, will preside over the convention.

Major Geo. A. Armes, of Washington, D. C., who now owns the land at Apomattox battle-ground, has decided to Major H. A. London, for the State of North Carolina, the plats of ground there that the state desires on which to erect memorial tablets, commemorating the heroic part the North Carolina troops took in the battle, notably the fact that North Carolina troops were the last to lay down their arms. The Legislature is to be asked to appoint a commission to receive the deeds and to direct the placing of the memorials.

BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.
The Finance Committee of the State Board of Agriculture was in session to-day making up their report for the past year preparatory for the annual meeting of the board to convene to-morrow. The figures are not given out yet but the receipts have been about $85,000. The board is now putting up the money for the erection of the Agricultural building at the Agricultural and Mechanical College at $100,000.

A certificate of dissolution was filed to-day for the Kornegay-Manly Company, of Mt. Olive. R. Kornegay and F. F. Manly are the incorporators.

The Mt. Airy Jewelry Company, of Mt. Airy, is chartered with a $200,000 capital authorized and $60,000 subscribed. Another charter was to the Walverine Lumber Company, of Noland, capital $25,000, C. D. Fuller, principal incorporator. Still another charter was to the Acme Grocery Company, of Smithfield, capital $10,000, authorized and $500 subscribed by T. S. Ragdale and others.

A PAINTER MISSING.

Dr. Orne Discusses Curfew Law With the City Fathers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEWPORT NEWS, VA., Dec. 6.—Mystery surrounds the disappearance of Frank Roberts, a painter who arrived here Saturday with a party of workmen brought along by John Hay, the former painter of the local shipyard. Saturday night Roberts went out to "see the town," and about midnight he was put to bed in a Washington Avenue Hotel by his friends. Since that time he has not been seen. A handsome gold watch and an $8.00 clerk Saturday night, is still in the safe. No one saw the man leave the room or the hotel, and the management can give no explanation for his absence. The police authorities have been notified of the case and are searching being made for the man. He was a young man twenty-seven years of age.

Dr. A. S. Orne, of New York, who claims to have been the originator of the juvenile court, appeared before the City Council to-night to discuss the curfew ordinance, which is being considered by the city fathers. Dr. and Mrs. Orne arrived in the city on Monday and were met by the city fathers. Dr. Orne fell from the rigging of a topmast on the schooner Lucinda Sutton Sunday night, and was injured. He was broken and penetrated the sailor's right lung, but since yesterday his condition is slightly improved and the doctors say he has a good fighting chance for his life.

Arrangements have been completed for the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the birth of George Washington at Trinity Methodist Church here to-morrow night. Several of the speakers from the Co-Operative Union Convention, which has been the custom of the occasion, have been invited to address the meeting.

PHI BETA KAPPA.

Alpha Chapter Holds Annual Meeting and Banquet.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., Dec. 6.—Alpha Chapter of the Phi Beta Kappa Society celebrated the 125th anniversary of its birth here last night in a manner in every way worthy of the occasion. It has been the custom of this chapter to hold its annual celebration in February, but the change in date was made in order to have more properly observed Founder's Day, which is December 5th. The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Robert E. Compas, the pastor of one of the new initiatives. Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, occupying the position of president, delivered a short but elegant address of welcome. President Lynn G. Tyler, of William and Mary College, was the orator of the evening. He spoke on "Some Features of the Past History of William and Mary College." He discussed the history and faculty of the college from its organization in 1693 to the outbreak of the Civil War, beginning with the famous Dr. John Blair and concluding with the hardly less famous President Dew.

COURTMARTIAL OF FRANKLIN SOLDIERS

The Findings Create Consternation and the Governor Will be Appealed to.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Dec. 6.—There was some consternation in Franklin, Va., to-day when four young men of prominent families, members of Company I, Seventy-first Regiment, received notices about the result of a recent court-martial in which they were charged with willful disobedience. Patrick Gay, A. C. Darden, C. L. Parker and L. C. Holland were each fined $20, given five days in jail and dishonorably discharged. The findings of the court-martial have not yet been passed upon by Governor Montague and the accused will be given ten days in which to prepare a statement.

State Senator William Shands, of Southampton, and other public men will intercede with the Governor in their behalf. The defendants are accused of willfully disobeying Captain Harrison, who commands Company I, by ignoring his orders to attend drills and otherwise.
